Franklin Baseball Camps Information

All camps will be directed by Franklin College head coach Lance Marshall, his staff and players. All December, January and February camps will be held in the Fitness Center, located directly across the street from Faught Stadium. All summer camps will be held at John P. McDowell Field, home of the Grizzlies. Both venues are located on the Franklin College campus.

Hitting Camps

All hitting camps will cover the aspects of the fundamentals of hitting, including instruction in hitting, bunting, base running and mental approach to hitting.

Pitching Camps

All pitching camps will cover all aspects of the fundamentals of pitching. This includes mechanics, pitch grips, pickoff moves, arm care and variation of pitches.

All Skills Camp

The focus of the All Skills camps is all around player development. Camps are designed to improve each young player’s skills and knowledge of the game.

Advanced Skills Camp

This camp is specifically designed for the advanced player. Players will be instructed in all phases of the game, further delving into the mental part of baseball including situational baseball and game preparation.

High School Prospect Camps

The Franklin College High School Camp is for players who will be graduating from high school in 2013 or 2014. The camp is designed to allow players to develop their skills in an instructional setting while also being able to showcase their talents. Instruction will include mechanics, situational hitting and pitching and mental approach to competing in baseball.

Lance Marshall...Head Coach

Lance Marshall was named the head coach of the Franklin College baseball program in August 1997. He also is assistant athletic director at the college.

During his tenure at Franklin, Marshall has guided the Grizzlies to three Heartland Collegiate Athletic Conference regular season championships, plus a conference tournament title and subsequent berth in the NCAA Division III Championship tournament.

The 2012 season marked the second consecutive season the Grizzlies posted 30 wins with a 31-11 record.

In the 2011 season, Marshall coached Franklin to a 30-14 overall record, including a perfect 17-0 mark in home contests and a 16-8 record in HCAC games. Moreover, the Grizzlies captured their first HCAC championship tournament and earned the league’s automatic bid to the NCAA Division III playoffs.

In 2009, Marshall guided the Grizzlies to a 31-11 record and their third HCAC title. The Grizzlies posted a 17-4 mark in HCAC contests – matching their best league record of 2002 – and earned their sixth appearance in the conference tournament – including their third opportunity to host – since the league tourney became limited to four schools in 2001. He also was voted the HCAC’s Coach of the Year for the third time.

In 2005, Franklin won the HCAC title with a 15-6 mark and achieved its second best single-season victories total in finishing 29-15 overall. He was voted the HCAC’s Coach of the Year for the second time. The Grizzlies led the league in both team batting average and team earned run average and garnered their highest ever national ranking of 24th among Division III schools as rated by the American Baseball Coaches Association. Franklin also was rated a best-ever third in the NCAA III Mideast Region.

In the spring of 2002, Marshall coached FC to a school-record 32 victories and its first HCAC regular season crown with a league record 17 league triumphs. Franklin also was ranked a then best-ever fifth in the Mideast Region and was rated in the Top 30 in the nation for the first time. He was voted the HCAC’s Coach of the Year – the first time a Franklin coach was the recipient of the honor.

During Marshall’s tenure, Franklin College achieved one of its most notable victories ever in a 4-3 win at Division I member University of Notre Dame in South Bend, Ind. in May, 2007. He owns an overall coaching record of 353-256 for 15 seasons at FC.
